Hoedowners

by Shirley Hanrion

In May on the 25th we have just one special dance to celebrate our 64th Anniversary, and will have “ole home week” with our square dance class teacher, Dave Rensberger calling, with Dave Cleek cueing. Dave Rensberger is no longer calling regular square dances, but will be doing this one for us. We are very fortunate to have Dave living at our Central Coast area, and lucky to have him teaching square dance classes and workshops.

The current new dancer’s class is finished, and we will start up a new one at the SLO Grange Hall September 15, 17, and 19 at 7 p.m., for a first week jumpstart for a total of $15, then commence every Wednesday thereafter for $6 each week. Please scout now for prospective new square dancers to start the class in September. You will find a registration form on-line at ccsda.net for all new dancers.

The Hoedowners will dance to Erin and Scot Byars June 8 which is always a lot of fun; then on June 22 we will have Mike Wright coming to call for us again.

Do Paso Squares

By Susan Seliskar

We would like to extend our appreciation to the visiting dancers who attended our last dance. You always make it a great time, thanks! One of our guests brought it to our attention that she was having a Square Dance Party and everyone is invited. She has rented the Cambria Veteran's Memorial Hall from 2 to 5 pm on Saturday, June 7th and is even bringing pizza to munch on. She says it will be at a basic-mainstream level with a $6 donation. She hopes all can attend.

We hope all dancers will consider helping the Do Pasos staff the voting booth for our June 3rd election. It is from 6am to 9pm, of course we have several short shifts. This is what keeps our club going, so if you can spare a few hours please call Sue at 466-0147.

We are also in need of dancers for the fair. If you would be interested in dancing in a demonstration at the fair, Thursday, July 24th from 6:30 to 8 pm, we would sure appreciate your participation. Call Sue and reserve your fair tickets now.

Don't forget our May 9th dance starts at 7:00PM at the Paso Robles Grange, 627 Creston Road, with Jay Henderson calling. See you there!
